

Dear TSM families, 23rd May 2025

It's been a busy sporting week here at TSM!

On Monday, the Year 5 & 6 football team played a friendly match against my old school - St John's Primary School. It was a closely fought game, and at half-time, TSM trailed 3–2. However, the team delivered a spirited second-half performance, scoring four goals to secure a 6–3 victory. Well done to everyone involved!

Then on Tuesday, the Year 5 & 6 cricket team travelled to St Cross to compete in the annual Winchester and Eastleigh District Cricket Competition. The team performed brilliantly, losing only one of their group matches, which earned them a place in the semi-finals. The standard of cricket—particularly the bowling—was very high, and although the team eventually lost the semi-final, they should be proud of their efforts. Well done to all involved!

Away from sport, on Thursday the Year 5 children visited Twyford Prep School to join their Year 5 peers for a music and drama day. The children had a fantastic time and concluded the day with performances for both sets of parents. A big thank you to Twyford Prep for hosting such a wonderful event.

I hope you all have a great half-term break, and we look forward to seeing you on Monday, 2nd June.
