

Sycamore Home Learning: Spring 1

Please complete the tasks from the tic-tac-toe grid over this half term. The reading task is a MUST DO job. Home learning is to be submitted via admin office email or handed directly to Ms White or Mrs Lawrence and will be celebrated in class at the end of the day.

Year 3 to complete 3 tasks, Year 4 to complete 4.

Mosaic Madness The Romans are famous for their mosaics. Traditionally, mosaics use lots of small pieces of glass, ceramic or coloured stone to make a picture. Often these pictures represented stories. Have a go at making your own mosaic to represent a story (use cut up paper). You could take a scene from a Roman Myth. The video below may give you some tips: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=p3hGrnep6WQ	Food for Thought People living in the Roman era didn't have access to the same ingredients we do today – or the same quality of them. Follow the link and have a go at making your own ancient roman-style bread. Compare it with your favourite modern -day bread – what is different? Which do you prefer? https://www.vita-romae.com/roman-bread.html	Numeral Hunt Roman numerals we see today started to be used 2000 years ago. Even though we now use an Arabic system, Roman numerals can still be found, if you look closely and carefully. How many different places can you find roman numerals? Can you find more than 10? You could take photographs of all the examples that you find
Eat Well A healthy, balanced diet is important for our growth and health. Watch the linked video to find out more about the NHS Eat Well Guide (or Google it yourself) https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QalLk3SQfhw Challenge: Keep a food diary for a week, recording what you eat. Which parts of your diet are healthiest? What would you change about your diet?	Must do reading job: Make an alternative front cover for a book you have read. You could also write a blurb for the back cover. Consider how you would persuade someone else to read it	Writing Watch this video for an introduction to the Roman Gods (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mL58pW48bvE) Choose: Research and create a factual poster about a Roman God/Goddess Or Write a diary account of meeting a Roman God/Goddess

Please don't forget to take time to read to someone at home and practise your times tables (you could use Times Tables Rock Stars!)
